

INFORMATION SHEET

Fraxinus urbanite (Urbanite Green Ash) –

This tree is attractive and tough. It has a pyramid shape with a strong, upright trunk and develops grey brown bark which becomes deeply furrowed as the tree matures. Yellowish-green flowers are produced in spring and foliage turns a beautiful bronze colour in autumn. Ideal street tree with a moderate growth rate and adapts to most soils and conditions.