

Lophostemon confertus (Brush Box) –

A fast growing, medium to large tree, that is rarely affected by pests or diseases. Dome-like in shape it has a dense foliage cover of dark green, making it an ideal shade tree throughout the Summer months. Its salmon coloured bark is a feature as are the clusters of small white flowers giving it a decorative fluffy appearance.