

Ulmus glabra 'Lutescens' (Golden Elm) –

A medium sized tree which has a vase shape when young, but develops into a more rounded canopy as it matures. This fast growing elm is wide spreading, becoming wider than it is tall with age. It has golden foliage and provides good shade for those Summer days. The bright green leaves turn brilliant yellow in Autumn.